The Mystery of the Trinity

But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all the truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come. He will glorify me because it is from me that he will receive what he will make known to you. All that belongs to the Father is mine. That is why I said the Spirit will receive from me what he will make known to you." John 16:13-15 (NIV)

The puzzle is based on John 16:12-15

Sacred Heart Novena 2015

It's hard to believe that this annual event in our parish is here again. The novena starts this year on Thursday 4th June and concludes on Friday 12th June. The overall theme for this year is 'The Joyful Mysteries—what are yours'. The novena gives us an opportunity to reflect on the gift that God's presence is to us and the many ways he brings joy to our lives and hearts. These joys might not be major ones but none the less they are all important to our daily living. They can be as simple as a kindness we receive or indeed share with another or even something much greater that helps us cope and manage.

As every year we are spoiled for choice with an array of guests speakers and celebrants. We are honoured to have His Excellency, The Papal Nuncio Archbishop Charles Brown as celebrant for the feast day on Friday 12th June. We will also have our celebrations of the Sacrament of the Sick on Sunday afternoon at 3pm and a Penitential Service on Thursday 11th June @ 7.30pm. If you are aware of a neighbour who would like to join us during the novena and need assistance—please let us know and we will do what we can to arrange transport etc.

A Personal Note

On behalf of my family and myself I would like to thank all who sympathised with us on the recent death of our mother. Your prayers, love, kindness and support will never be forgotten and are much appreciated. They have helped us during a very sad and difficult time.
