Welcome Back...Welcome

Well the beautiful sunshine seems to have gone shy on us again but wasn't the summer we had a good one. It was great to have the weather that has given us all a real sense of having had time to rest and relax. It was really good for our children & younger people who have returned to school ready to begin a new years learning and all that might mean for them.

The Parish Centre is back in full swing also. The various groups and services have started up again.

Welcome Fr. David Fleming

We extend a warm welcome to Fr. David Fleming who has been appointed by the Archbishop to our Pastoral Area team of Crumlin/Mourne Rd/Clogher Rd. Fr. Fleming comes to us from ministering in the parish of Bardarrig/Brittis in Co. Wicklow.

A new startA new helper....A new volunteer.....We Need You

As you will read inside we are in urgent need of volunteers to help out at the Parish Parent & Toddler Group. We also need volunteers to help with the other groups in the Parish. Why not consider giving a little of your time back in helping us out at your parish here at St. Bernadette's. It is really up to you—you will not be disappointed and you will be practically helping to make our parish a truly living and active Christian community.

Slán.
 Fr. Melvyn
