How quickly things can change

Well did you ever think that having had such sunshine in early September that the weather could change so quickly to bring cold and rain and lately turn to be cloudy and humid. It goes without saying that it reminds us how little we control our lives really. Another change comes in the routines we have. The return or the start of school for our young people can return us and family life to a different rhythm altogether. Of course the other side to all of this is that we realise how blessed we are and in so many ways and maybe a reminder to us to give thanks to the Lord for so much.

Pope Francis Interview

You might have heard something of the interview that the Pope gave recently. The Pope spoke very openly about himself and many of his thoughts on various aspects of his life, the Jesuits and the Church. Its really refreshing to hear the leader of our Church being so open, honest and frank. The full interview is available at <http://www.americamagazine.org/pope-interview> and the Morning Ireland radio response by the Archbishop is available at <http://www.rte.ie/news/morningireland/player.html?20130920,20440720,20440720,flash,257> Both are well worth a listen to and or a read. You can get these links on the Dublin Diocese website also.
