Jimmy Fennell - New Permanent Deacon.

In 2013 I was ordained a Permanent Deacon and appointed to this cluster of parishes. I was born in Crumlin and am one of eight children. My mother was from Leighlin Rd and my father from Monasterboice Rd. I am self employed repairing electrical tools. In my spare time I am a volunteer youth worker with Bru Crumlin youth club. I was also a member of the Irish Naval Reserve for many years.

Like a number of people, my faith and the support of those around me, makes life a joy. Permanent Deacons work in a voluntary capacity. They may be married or single. Those that are not married take a vow of celibacy. Permanent Deacons assist the priest, minister at the altar, proclaim the Gospel and assist in works of charity. They also celebrate baptism & marriage, give benediction, bring communion to the sick, minister at funerals and bestow some blessings. Unlike a priest he cannot say Mass, hear confessions, give absolution or administer viaticum to the dying. At all times he assists the priest and takes his direction from him.

Sacrament of Confirmation 2014

As you know we will celebrate this sacrament with Archbishop Martin and boys & girls of 6th class this Thursday 13th Feb 2014 @ 11am. This is a parish celebration of faith and it would give great testimony and witness to our sharing of faith if as many parishioners as possible turned out to support our young people and their families on this special occasion. I look forward to seeing you on.
